

The Helen Gee Chin Scholarship Foundation was formed to honor the memory of Helen Gee Chin, wife of Sifu Chin of Calvin Chin's Martial Arts Academy, Inc. Simo was beloved by her husband, the students of the Academy that she ran with him, and by the martial arts community as a whole. The Foundation offers scholarships to encourage academic achievement by serious students of the Chinese martial arts.

The Foundation was proud to give out its first scholarship awards in August. The recipients for the 2011-2012 academic year, Clint Wu of Texas and Leslie Jaw of Massachusetts, received $2500.00 each for his/her college education. They were chosen for their excellent martial arts achievements and scholastic aptitude. College scholarship awards will continue to be available, and the 2012-2013 Application Form is expected to be available in the spring of 2012.

The 2011-2012 scholarship was open to high school students across the country who were entering college and met the minimum eligibility requirements: U.S. citizenship, five or more years of study in Chinese Martial Arts (Kung Fu, Wu Shu, or Tai Chi), and a "B" average grade or better. We anticipate the 2012-2013 scholarship will also be open to continuing college students enrolled in undergraduate studies. Scholarship recipients will be selected based on criteria such as martial arts study and achievement, academic achievement, a written essay, and participation and leadership in community and school activities. Further details about eligibility and the selection process can be found on the Application Form PDF, which can be downloaded from the Foundation website:
